

M.A. in Applied Child & Adolescent Development

Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health Track

Sample Degree Timeline

This timeline is intended to show typical progress toward the degree, and is necessarily general. Every student's program will be planned in consultation with their advisor. The number of credits listed in each semester is based on full-time program requirements.

YEAR ONE

Summer

CPSY 5301 Advanced Developmental Psychology (3 credits)

Fall

CPSY 5302 Cognitive & Biological Development (3 credits)

CPSY 5304 Research Methods in Applied Child and Adolescent Dev. (3 credits)

Spring

CPSY 5303 Social & Emotional Development (3 credits)

CPSY 5503 Development & Psychopathology in Early Childhood (3 credits)

CPSY 5506 Infant Observation Seminar I (1 credit)

YEAR TWO

Summer

CPSY 5508 Infant Observation Seminar II (1 credit)

CPSY 5513 Early Childhood Assessment (3 credits)

Fall

CPSY 5306 Ethics & Professionalism (2 credits)

CPSY 5511 Infant Observation Seminar III (1 credit)

CPSY 5518 Prevention & Intervention in Early Childhood: Principles (3 credits)

CPSY 5996 Professional Development (1 credit)

Spring

CPSY 5521 Prevention & Intervention in Early Childhood: Practice (3 credits)

CPSY 5996 Field Experience in Applied Child & Adolescent Development (2 credits)